General Comment

Being able to trade options in a retirement account is the only way that I would be able to do so. I have studied the trading process carefully, have watched videos and have read reports and books. Options can be SAFE and can be far safer even than owning stocks outright.

Please do not remove our ability to grow our retirement funds. Do NOT change rules to "protect" us. Instead of "protection," we would lose a significant opportunity for improving our ability to grow our retirement funds safely.

Thank you,

Elizabeth S.
